

Economic and Political Studies | CALL FOR PAPERS

Special issue on „The Shadow Economy, Tax Behaviour and Insights from Big Data”

The Authors of the papers presented at the 9th Shadow Conference: The Shadow Economy, Tax Behaviour and Insights from Big Data (held on 25-28 September 2025 at SGH Warsaw School of Economics, Warsaw, Poland) are cordially invited to submit the manuscripts to the special issue at Economic and Political Studies. The journal is open to micro and macro contributions, theoretical as well as empirical, related to developed, developing, emerging or transition economies. Papers bearing significant policy implications are especially welcome. Papers do not have to focus on a specific country.

About the Journal

The Impact Factor of Economic and Political Studies is currently 2.0 (2024; 5-year IF 2.1). More details and metrics can be found on the Journal's Taylor & Francis website. Upon acceptance, Authors will be expected to follow the Journal's instruction for Authors. The journal follows a double-blind review policy, applicable to any submission for this special section.

How to submit

To submit your paper, please use the journal's submission system. After creating an account or logging in, as a first step of a new paper submission (Manuscript), please select “Yes” as a reply to “Are you submitting your paper for a specific special issue or article collection? (This is typically in response to a Call For Papers, Editor request, or direct invitation)” and then please select “Shadow2025” from the “Select a special issue or article collection” dropdown menu.

Timeline

The time window for submissions is open until March 1, 2026.

Contact to Editors

The special section is handled by two guest editors:

Stanisław Cichocki, University of Warsaw, scichocki@wne.uw.edu.pl

Andrzej Torój, SGH Warsaw School of Economics, atoroj@sggh.waw.pl

Please do not hesitate to contact us for any queries.